John's Story

John's wife recently came to live at St. Peter's. We would like to help him share his story in his own words.

"Just a little something I hope will let you all know how much I appreciate and respect every one of you.

"Today is my 73rd Birthday. This is the first time in 56 years that I will not be able to get a birthday hug from my wife Sylvia. She was 15 at the time we started dating. My daughter Sam and I are still trying to cope without Sylvia being with us. We picked St. Peter's because we knew it was the very best.

"You, yes you, every one of you, is an unsung hero. You are taking terrific care of our loved ones and we know they are safe.

I would like to personally give you all a hug, but a wave is safer."

Thrive Group would like to wish John a very happy birthday.
