

Here is a member of our staff participating in the Personal Protective Equipment training to ensure their safety, health and well-being when providing care to our residents. These N95 face masks protect the wearer from airborne particles and liquid contaminating the face.